Consumers Credit File Rights Under State and Federal Law

You have a right to dispute inaccurate information in your credit report by contacting the credit bureau directly. However, neither you nor any "credit repair" company or credit repair organization has the right to have accurate, current, and verifiable information removed from your credit report. The credit bureau must remove accurate, negative information from your report only if it is over 7 years old. Bankruptcy information can be reported for 10 years.

You have a right to obtain a copy of your credit report from a credit bureau. You may be charged a reasonable fee. There is no fee however, if you have been turned down for credit, Employment, insurance, or a rental dwelling because of information in your credit report within the preceding 60 days. The credit bureau must provide someone to help interpret the information in your credit file. You are entitled to receive a free copy of your credit report if you are unemployed and intend to apply for employment in the next 60 days, if you are a recipient of public welfare assistance, or if you have reason to believe that there is inaccurate information in your credit report due to fraud.

You have a right to sue a credit repair organization that violates the credit repair organization act. This law prohibits deceptive practices by credit repair organizations.

You have the right to cancel your contract with any credit repair organization for any reason within 3 business days from the date you signed it.

Credit bureaus are required follow reasonable procedures to ensure that the information they report is accurate. However, mistakes may occur.

You may, on your own, notify a credit bureau in writing that you dispute the accuracy of information in your credit file. The credit bureau must then reinvestigate and modify or remove inaccurate or incomplete information. The credit bureau may not charge any fee for this service. Any pertinent information and copies of all documents you have concerning an error should be given to the credit bureau.

{ Now that you have signed up: } The CRS DELETION process begins :

Signing date: _____ / STATE: _____

After signing, and forwarding your completed application, with a copy of your drivers (license enlarged) and a copy of your social security card, with all signed pages complete with a check for the appropriate fees made payable to CRS, we will process your application. This will take as little as 40 days and possible 90, due to the process.

During the next {60 to 90 days,} you are "NOT TO OPEN ANY LINES OF CREDIT", or try and have anyone else run your Social security number or your spouses for anything. This will only stall and create a problem, when we are trying to delete and correct your file, the bureau sees you applying for credit and you have compromised our process.

You will receive (3) three "green postal receipt post cards" signed by each credit bureau, and from that date signed we have a document from them that we have opened an investigation and validation process of your credit file purging non lawful information off your credit files. Afterwards, your FICO score increases and your file is correct.

Send us at the above address "all letters, responses, or material" sent to you from these three credit bureaus as soon you get them. We look forward to correcting your file.

Please contact us for additional concerns if you have any.

Best regards,
